

Rudolph Reindeer Photo Ornament

Make your kids stand out with these easy and cute DIY photo ornaments inspired by Rudolph to bring a smile on the Christmas tree.

Kids will giggle and be delighted to point to their shiny big red nose!

RUDOLPH REINDEER PHOTO ORNAMENTS – MATERIALS:
(Get the easy printable card with materials and instructions for how to make these from the link below)

- Paper lids (the kind from to-go food containers, but you can also use a piece of round cardboard in a pinch)
- Brown paint, paint brushes
- Brown and light brown cardstock
- Pipe cleaners (browns, glittery gold, glittery red)
- Tiny pom poms
- Small red pom poms
- Photo of your child (at least 4" square)
- Twine
- Strong tape (we used packing tape)
- Hot glue gun

INSTRUCTIONS:

Step 1. Paint your lid (or cardboard) brown and allow to dry

Step 2. Print out a photo of your child's face, 4 x 4 inch squares will do. Use the lid to trace and cut your photo into a circle, trim to fit in the lid. Glue photo to the lid.

Step 2. Twist your pipe cleaners with something round and then hot glue them to the back of the lid to make antlers. Hot glue mini pom poms as light.

Step 3. Cut two large ears and two small inner ears from your brown papers. Glue the inner to the outside ears and hot glue the ears to the lid.

Step 4. Add your twine to the back by either taping it or hot gluing it.

Aren't these the most adorable Santa's reindeers? This would make a wonderful classroom Christmas art project or holiday keepsake from kids to parents!

Link for video & website